"Underwear of Overcoat, which"

We answer, "Both." We sell many Overcoats for as much as $35 to $45; such garments as would cost fifteen to thirty dollars additional if "custom made." But for actual service it is hard to improve on our $20 and $25 Chinchillas or $23 smooth Beavers.

As for Underwear, the bottom of the market for the good sorts is in our stores. Prices revised to make short work of a surplus; $2 buys three dollars' worth—$1.50 buys two and a half's worth—$1.25 two dollars' worth.

Maybe you don't care for a "House Coat." Wouldn't you if it cost only $3.75? That's the figure now for the former five and six dollar jackets. The higher cost ones have had three to six dollars knocked off their prices. And what's better to give a man for Christmas?

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

USEFUL AND ORNAMENTAL.

The Largest and Finest Stock in the City to Select From.

OPEN EVENINGS.

Good and Bad.

A man may have GOOD TASTE in selecting his clothing, and yet be a VERY POOR JUDGE of the value of the articles he buys. This is the reason why there are so many thousands of faded garments seen on the streets; coats shrunken; seams sagging; buttons ragged; and pants with that peculiar twisted extremity, and is displayed in the most enticing way behind great plate-glass windows such as adorn some of our up-town clothing houses. We do not say it is MORTUARY, but during the FIFTY YEARS we have been in business OUR PRINCIPAL AIM HAS BEEN TO PERSUADE buyers to come in and CAREFULLY EXAMINE OUR CLOTHING. We want them to see the difference between our stock, which is SOLED ON ITS MERITS, and goods kept in stores WHERE THEY NEVER EXPECT TO SEE A CUSTOMER THE SECOND TIME. REMEMBER WE GUARANTEE THAT EVERY ARTICLE WE SELL WILL PROVE TO BE EXACTLY AS REPRESENTED OR WE WILL REFUND THE MONEY.

Being overstocked, we are at present offering every garment in our immense establishment at ONE-FOURTH ITS ORIGINAL PRICE, and this includes SUPERB OVERCOATS AT TEN DOLLARS, and TEN DOLLARS will buy a VERY SUPERIOR GRADE OF ALL-WOOL SUITS.
